Commission Extends Temporary Cease Trade Order

Halifax - The Nova Scotia Securities Commission has extended a temporary cease trade order against Michael A. Harrigan.

The Commission hearing scheduled for July 31, 2014 is adjourned to a date to be arranged by the Secretary of the Commission. Mr. Harrigan is ordered to cease acting as a registered representative and to cease trading in securities for anyone other than himself until a hearing is held and a decision is made by the Commission.

"It is common practice for a temporary order to be extended when an investigation is ongoing," said Heidi Schedler, Enforcement Counsel. "The extension order provides investor protection to Nova Scotians while we continue our investigation."

Mr. Harrigan is a former Dealing Representative, but he is no longer registered with the Commission. He appears to have violated Nova Scotia securities laws by trading in securities without being registered.
